Great Western Savings Opens Newest Branch

Surrounded by a festive and lively throng, Erin O'Brien, singing and motion picture star, officially cut the ribbon opening the newest branch of Great Western Savings this week. Located at 16818 Hawthorne Blvd., the new branch is just two blocks north of the South Bay Shopping Center. John F. Marten, President of Great Western Savings, who assisted Erin in the ribbon cutting, stated that South Bay residents opened accounts for more than $40,000 during the first few hours that the branch was open.

South Bay marks the fifth branch office for Great Western. Other offices are located in downtown Los Angeles at 7th and Hill; Crenshaw and Vernon, 15112 So. Western, Gardena, and Lakewood center.

TAKE FOOD COURSE
More than 300 persons, primarily food service personnel from public eating places, attended a course of instruction for food handlers given by Los Angeles County Health Dept., in the Torrance Civic Auditorium, last month, according to D. W. Colfelt, area chief sanitarian.

Rabbi Zelden To Speak at Local Temple

Rabbi Isaiah Zelden of Temple Emmanuel of Beverly Hills, prominent lecturer and educator will discuss "Marital Problems" at a special joint meeting of Temple Menorah's Sisterhood and Brotherhood to be held at the Temple, 112 S. Catalina St., Redondo Beach, at 8 p.m. Monday.

Former director of the Southern Calif. Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, Rabbi Zelden is Dean of the College of Jewish Studies, and has been Dean of the California School of the Hebrew Union College.

The second part of the special meeting will be devoted to the forthcoming Passover holiday which commemorates the going forth of the Jews from Egypt, the land of bondage, under the leadership of Moses.

Mrs. Bernard Yeskin, Mrs. Sidney Greene, Mrs. Stanley Lieber, Mrs. Sam Katz, and Mrs. Edna Rappaport will serve Passover delicacies following the meeting. A special Passover table will be on display. Hostesses will be Mrs. Milton Feinberg, Mrs. David Morrison, Mrs. Bernard Rivo, and Mrs. Donald Finkelstein. The public is invited.
